

SACRED FRANCE Tour— Rediscovering the MAGDALENE

With Jonette Crowley.

Author, Channel, Spiritual 'Indiana Jones'
9-days, April 17 – April 25th, 2017

The old world is fading — and a new one far more precious than we can imagine is being birthed through us. Old concepts and false illusions are transforming into the realization of our Oneness with all. Jonette has channeled that this is the time of 'radical wisdom.' It is vital now to re-awaken the Divine Feminine as embodied by Mary Magdalene. Please join us for a life changing sacred journey in southern France. You will be called to personally experience the deep mysteries and forgotten wisdom as we travel through the Provence and Languedoc region. Explore the legacy of Mary Magdalene, stories of the Black Madonna and tales of the Knights Templar.

We pay homage to the Cathars, the Essene christian group with a dove as their symbol. We learn why the Templars venerated Mary Magdalene as the Mother of Wisdom, the ancient goddess Sophia, embodied in the goddess Isis. As we travel through the French countryside we attune to the spirit of this magical land—the sacred caves, the mountain portals, the forests in springtime. On this journey there will be wonderful gatherings and channeling from Jonette as we go deep with the soul of this land to integrate our own next level of wisdom. This is a pilgrimage into our illuminated self. We seek Mastery; together awakening the essence of the God and Goddess within our hearts. The tour includes channelings, initiations and ceremonies from Jonette and her guides at the appropriate times.

The original Roman name for this town was "Ra." Morning walking tour visiting Notre Dame de la Mer, the Church of the Black Madonna of Sarah, known as the Saint of the Gypsies. This site was venerated as a holy place by the Celts, Romans, Christians, and Romanian gypsies. It was a Roman temple site dedicated to Mithras. cobbled streets. After lunch depart for Limoux where we will see another Black Madonna and a healing well of miracles. The monastery of Limoux was the place where sparkling wine—the predecessor of Champagne was first produced. Check onto our castle hotel in the village of Couiza. Day 5, Friday, April 21 - Rennes le Chateau, Rennes le Bains & Isis Chair

Morning visit to Rennes le Chateau, the small hilltop village in the eastern Pyrenees that is the center of the mysteries of the Holy Blood and Holy Grail, and theories claiming that a local priest, Beringer Sauniere, uncovered hidden treasures and/or secrets about the history of the Church. Some say it is linked with the Knights Templar and Merovingian Kings. Some say the secrets of Mary Magdalene are encoded in the St. Magdalene Church, Magdalene Tower and the surrounding landscape. Lunch together in the village. We then visit Rennes le Bains and have a ceremony at the over 5,000 year old stone throne known as Isis's Chair. Dinner at our hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 6, Saturday, April 22 — Montsegur

We take a picnic lunch and drive to the powerful and legendary mountain stronghold of Montsegur. This is one of the spiritual highlights of our tour. We climb up the steep mountain citadel of Montsegur, known as the last stronghold of the Cathars or “pure ones” (thought to be an Essene Christian group.). It was reported that 20,000 Cathars were exterminated by orders from the Pope in the Albigensian Crusade. Some of the Cathars took refuge here until over 200 Cathar Perfects were burnt at the prat dels cremats ‘field of the burned’ near the foot of the castle, rather than renounce their faith. Here we will pray for all of those throughout time who have been persecuted for their faith. The legend says that 3 Cathar Perfects escaped from the fortress before the massacre, taking with them ‘le trésor cathar’, the Cathar Treasure. What this treasure consisted of has been debated: sacred Gnostic texts, or gold, or the Holy Grail? One legend says that Esclarmonde— the female guardian of the Grail, threw it into the mountain of Montsegur to prevent it from falling into the wrong hands. We come seeking the wisdom that is hidden here. We ask ourselves, could the Grail be sacred knowledge that we are now awakening? We will do a special meditation at this power portal. If possible we visit the village church of Montsegur. Dinner at our hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 7, Sunday, April 23 – Alet Les Bains, and the Hermitage des Gorge de Galamus

We begin at Alet Les Bains, a picturesque village on the Aude river. Visit the Abby Notre Dame d’Alet and the nearby church with Star of David windows. Next we see the strange symbols carved on the beams of the home of Nostradamus. Nostradamus’s name means ‘Our Mother.’ Some believe his predictions were actually from Sarah, the daughter of Jesus and Magdalene. After lunch at an old Bishop's Palace we travel to the Hermitage of Galamus, a natural cave chapel with powerful healing energies. It has become a pilgrimage site after many miracles. You'll have private time for contemplation in this amazing and holy place.. Return to our hotel for dinner. (B, L, D)

Day 8, Monday, April 24 —Mount Bugarach

Mt. Bugarach is a mysterious 'upside down' mountain because the top layers of the rocks are older than the lower layers. There are many legends here —light ships, UFO activity, underground cities, the myth of Agartha and the hollow Earth. Jules Verne wrote about Bugarach and the existence of an underground civilization. Pagan Celtic religions saw the subterranean networks and hollow hills as entrances to other worlds, specifically the realm of the fairies. Mt. Bugarach is also reputed (some say) to be the site of an ancient Essene community. We absorb the energies here as we drive then hike up this mystical mountain. It represents the masculine strength that brings divine balance to this land. We find a place to gather for a meditation with Jonette. Lunch will be a picnic on the mountain. It is a 2 hour drive to our airport hotel in Toulouse for our Farewell Dinner (B, L, D)

Day 9, Tuesday, April 25th — Departure home from Toulouse.
Shuttles to the airport are available. (B)
