MARK Channeled by Jonette Crowley

February 20, 2017

Welcome, Knights and Ladies of the Goddess! This is Mark. White Eagle is here and so many celestial beings, and so many extraterrestrial which you would call celestial beings are around as well.

We're grateful that you are dedicating this journey to a much greater awakening than you know. This is the year of awakening. You are awakening patterns that have not thrived on Earth for thousands and thousands of years. You're not just awakening your lower self. You are reawakening patterns. These patterns are dormant in the places you visit. They are dormant in you, and when you bring you to the places you are going to, there is a chemistry that opens up gateways of immediate transformation. It will be important to use your star groups so that the intensity is smooth and playful rather than overwhelming in any way.

Joy and the ability to transmute everything into joy will be a theme of this journey. Fun will be as important in the big picture as will be your deep meditations and time for contemplation. There is not a separation between the secular and the sacred. The goddess comes to heal that apparent separation. The goddess within all will be moving from the background to the foreground.

This means that you will be aware of subtle knowledge and subtle energies that prior to this were below your radar. All of you will be more sensitive. This sensitivity will come with knowledge so it is bringing you inspired awareness rather than sensory overload. Inspired awareness will be the goal of increased sensitivity. The awareness will be self awareness and also greater awareness of the stellar plan for humanity. Although you will be looking at historical places, places of worship, places of the goddess, the perspective will be one that is out of time, outside of time and will bring a more stellar viewpoint to your life and to Earth's transitions.

As always when you gather together in spiritual community, there is deep clearing of the planet and raising the planetary vibration in order to harmonize that which has been disruptive. There is a bit of a warning as you prepare for the journey that you may feel disrupted, a little anxious, maybe even moody. That is all the precursor of the disharmony before it becomes harmonized. Don't take any of your anxiety as you pack or as you travel too seriously.

This will be a drama-free journey. We are declaring that. All right, we're ready for questions.

QUESTION: My personal feeling is that something magical is going to happen that we don't even know about as yet. What are some of the little things that we can do now to prepare for what I would call the immense information and energies that we'll be exposed to while we're in France?

MARK: Some of the magic will be certainly connecting with the Inner Earth Beings and the beings who are the Wardens of Time so there will be a sense of timelessness and much work in the higher dimensions beyond time.

In preparation, always, always be sure you're grounded. Use Soul Body Fusion®. Open your heart to the magic of the unseen world and try to keep the magical creatures like the unicorns to come into your awareness. The energies that are swirling around humanity are creating uncertainty and chaos. Yet, it's when those energies are stirred up that they are free to create a new planetary structure. That's why we say don't take too seriously the chaos, the disturbing, the stirring up that's happening perhaps in your own life but it's certainly happening globally. It is essential that things are stirred up and lifted so that they can be reorganized in new geometric patterns that serve the Divine Feminine and harmony more than they serve conflict and lack.

QUESTION: In addition to preparing and feeling the energies that will be happening, do you recommend that before we go to sleep or during the day when we have some time to just be quiet and tune into that frequency so that we are already one step ahead of the preparation needed when we arrive?

MARK: So you're asking for now?

QUESTION: Yes, for now—anything that we could do right now to put us in that state of grace to receive as much as we can?

MARK: I would ask you all to have a journal for the trip and begin it now so that you can sit and receive automatic messages for this—I'm going to say it's this journey but it's this journey as a metaphor for life is a journey. So, quiet time, tuning in, meditation, plenty of fresh air and sleep—anything that keeps you fully embodied and connected to Mother Earth will serve you here. So begin your trip journaling now, not when you're on the plane going there.

Those of you who have the Soul Body Fusion® jewelry, please bring those. There will be times where you absolutely want to wear that jewelry, those crystals—the earrings and the necklace—because of what it holds in terms of goddess energy.

QUESTION: We still have time to get some, right? More? We have time, right?

JONETTE: Yes. I will have some with me unless I sell it before I get there.

QUESTION: I'm getting the strong feeling—in addition to not only the downloads that we're going to be receiving and the energy preparing for this trip that there's going to be sounds and colors and new frequencies coming to us. So I'm wondering if it's always a good idea to get massages and it's always a good idea to prepare, but do you think that a little bit more preparation than just being silent and just as we were talking about tuning into the unknown, so that when we arrive we can even experience more?

MARK: We don't want you to be so prepared that you think the preparation was important. The preparation has been done. You've answered the call to come; and, yes, there will be downloads but what we really want to let you know is that as a group you will be uploaded. You will be getting downloads from the Earth, from the goddess, from your own higher selves. You integrate that with the help of the group that you're with, and your presence uploads that into the "I" cloud for all of humanity so you will be a black hole and a white hole at the same time. You will be constantly being downloaded and constantly integrating and uploading something that's much more accessible for all of humanity. So you've been called there to be synthesizers of new energy and placing it in the Akasha for other human readers to go to that library and find it.

COMMENT: Wow! So this field is really big!

MARK: The mythology of the historical Magdalene is fascinating but none of it is as important as the open-hearted curiosity and the energies you already carry when you arrive as a group with a joint intention. Mary Magdalene could not script this group any better than it has scripted itself. We don't want you giving your energy to past goddesses that they are more important, more wise, more loving, more enlightened than the possibility for you to be that also. It is a trip of awakening. It is a trip focused on the present and the future although some of the triggers will be historical. It is about rediscovering the Magdalene, the goddess, the Sophia, the wisdom in each of you and uploading that into all humanity.

COMMENT: I want to cry. This is amazing. I'm so glad you're doing this. This is amazing.

MARK: You are doing this and your stars have held this pattern from the time you chose to be born. Other questions?

QUESTION: Does anybody else have any questions they'd like to ask? I can ask another one but I have a feeling somebody might want to ask something.

JARLA: This is Jarla. One of the things that you're going to be doing in the next few weeks is a Quantum Soul Body Fusion® event, and I'm wondering how we may absorb that and experience that so we can bring that level of Soul Body Fusion® with us?

MARK: The main aspect of Quantum Soul Body Fusion® is that it is the Soul Body Fusion® for the entire planet in all dimensions. So doing Soul Body Fusion® with the Quantum Field intention and also reading anything that Jonette has on the Internet with Ashtatara (because she, of course, holds the energy of that Quantum Soul Body Fusion®) will help, but you all will receive Quantum, Quantum Soul Body Fusions® on this journey. It is a prerequisite for you to do what you'll do. So it'll already happen, and for those it hasn't happened before you arrive, it will happen almost immediately upon connecting that first night. Again, we don't want you to take preparation too seriously. You've been preparing. You are prepared. You are all at the epitome of your grace open for a higher summit of grace. You cannot do it wrong. It's already complete, and you cannot do it better because that is impossible.

So we hope that this helps you all move out of the belief that you should be more ready or you should do something better. That is impossible. That's why joy is the theme—because you'll let go of not being or doing enough. Does anyone else have a question?

Jonette wants to know how this connects to the Australia and New Zealand journey. Connections to the star systems of the Pleiades are very important in some of the places you will go to in France. You will sense their energy in some of the caves or mountains. This is the same—I'm going to call it song line of the Aboriginals. Although you will be in France, you will be walking part of the song line of Aboriginals. We hope you can feel that as Jonette says it. Your physicists would call it quantum wormholes but you understand—well, that the Aboriginals understand them as song lines or quantum connecting. So in many ways, you will be traveling in dreamtime even as you are in Southern France.

When you arrive in Australia, the song lines, the wormholes will need to be open. Some of that opening your group will do in France, and some of the opening the Aboriginals are doing and other native people are doing. Your multidimensional ability to move through these song lines will be fine tuned in this France journey. Even as we say this, new doorways of multidimensional potential are opening. You are all very quick studies.

Teachers have often said that grace descends. In these journeys—France, Australia, New Zealand, Tibet, and any other journeys that you go on (not necessarily with Jonette), you will understand that grace does descend. It is created. With that, we thank you. This is Mark.

JONETTE: I notice that a lot of what he talked about happened as he mentions it but it's done. Does anyone have any more questions or perhaps comments on what was just said? Confirmation that you feel in your own hearts?

QUESTION: You asked about confirmation. You mentioned a confirmation. Are there things we can be looking at now before we go, signs that we can be paying particular attention to that we will get some sort of signs or confirmations while we're in France?

JONETTE: The confirmations are more like your soul giving a jab to your body saying, "See here, you're on the right track." The confirmations are mostly awareness of synchronicity and of allowance of magic. I'm going to repeat that—awareness of synchronicity and allowance of magic.

JONETTE: It's such a reunion and there's this level of a soul family coming together for something we've planned for ages.
